

FISMA, in its current form, places too great an emphasis on compliance over outcomes.

The bill requires OMB to oversee agency policies and develop information security protections consistent with standards issued by the National Institute of Standards and Technology and OMB would have to report to Congress annually on agency compliance.

Additionally, each agency would be required to provide protections that are commensurate with the risks posed to the security of the agency's information. The head of each agency would be required to appoint a Chief Information Security Officer responsible for developing and implementing an information security program and the bill mandates that each agency develop and implement an information security program that is approved by OMB.

Mr. Speaker, as a leading employer in the U.S., the federal government has a special responsibility to ensure that the electronic points of entry it maintains with Americans and with the world are protected from unauthorized access and disruption.

The common sense and necessary legislation before us today is an important step in that direction. I encourage my colleagues to join me in support of the bill.

ISRAEL INDEPENDENCE DAY

HON. C.A. DUTCH RUPPERSBERGER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 26, 2012

Mr. RUPPERSBERGER. Mr. Speaker, this week, we joined people in the State of Israel and her many friends around the world in celebrating Yom Ha'atzmaut—the independence from British mandatory rule and the establishment of the State of Israel.

The United States and Israel have shared a special bond since the establishment of the Jewish State in 1948. The United States, under the leadership of then-President Truman, was the first country to recognize Israel, only 11 minutes after its founding. Today, the United States and Israel continue to share a commitment to democracy, the rule of law, the freedoms of religion and speech, as well as respect for human rights. The United States and Israel also share a desire for peace and stability.

Our countries cooperate closely on intelligence issues, partnering on the development of new technology to promote the security and safety of our citizens. Bilateral ties in trade were codified in the 1985 U.S.-Israel Free Trade Agreement. Today, the American and Israeli governments and businesses are working together to develop and promote new energy solutions.

The Jewish people paid a heavy price for security and independence. Nearly 23,000 men and women have been killed defending Israel since the first Jewish settlers left the secure walls of Jerusalem in 1860. Since the end of the War of Independence, nearly 2,500 people have been killed by terror attacks in Israel, including 14 in the past year.

Today, despite disturbing political instability in the region, Israel stands strong. She is among the safest countries in the world, her economy is sound, life expectancy there is among the highest in the world, and more Israelis earn advanced degrees than most other nations. And, at a time when our own country is challenged by polarizing politics, an astounding 88 percent of Israelis say they are proud to be Israeli.

I want to extend my best wishes to the people of Israel as we celebrate Israel's extraordinary friendship and honor her achievements over the past 64 years.

RECOGNIZING MAYOR OF THE CITY OF LA VERNIA IN TEXAS, HAROLD SCHOTT

HON. HENRY CUELLAR

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 26, 2012

Mr. CUELLAR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the retiring Mayor of the City of La Vernia in Texas, Harold Schott. He was elected Mayor of the City of La Vernia in May 2008 and ends his tenure in May 2012. His tireless efforts have improved the community and served to better the development and progress of the City of La Vernia.

Mr. Schott was born in Castroville, Texas and grew up in San Antonio, Texas where he graduated from the Central Catholic High School. At twenty-five years old, he joined the San Antonio Police Department in 1970. In his duration with the department, he was a Police Department Union Representative for his substation. After 33 years of dedication and service, he retired from the Police Department in 2003. His work with the City of La Vernia began in 1998 when he was elected to the La Vernia City Council and held his position as a council member for a decade. By May 2008, he was elected Mayor of the City of La Vernia. I had the pleasure of working with the Mayor on various projects, such as securing a $500,000 earmark on a new water well and assistance for a grant that brought a new energy efficient roof for City Hall.

His work as Mayor led to a list of accomplishments that benefited the city and people of La Vernia, including new pumps and vault at Wood Creek water plant, TMRS Retirement plans for employees, and residential water meter replacement. Additionally, he increased safety and protections by reducing speed limits at the city limits and developed emergency response plans for water and wastewater systems. His actions were for the betterment of the community and commendable.

Along with serving the city, he sat on the Canyon Regional Water Authority Board of Trustees from 2004 through 2012. He has been married to his wife, Lucy, who has served as a U.S. Marshal for 17 years. The couple has two children and one grandchild.

Mr. Speaker, I am honored to recognize Mr. Harold Schott, retiring Mayor of the City of La Vernia. His years of dedication and commitment to our community have truly impacted the quality of lives for the people of the city.

CELEBRATING THE 64TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE INDEPENDENCE OF ISRAEL

HON. KENNY MARCHANT

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 26, 2012

Mr. MARCHANT. Mr. Speaker, it is with a strong spirit of solidarity that I recognize the 64th anniversary of the independence of the State of Israel. On May 14, 1948, as the world was working toward a brighter and less war-torn future, the Israeli people declared their independence from the British Mandate. The United States recognized the new State of Israel minutes after its birth and, ever since, our two nations have remained strong allies and profound friends.

During its 64 year history, the State of Israel has weathered persistent threats with a remarkable resolve. The nation has not only survived, but has prospered. While ensuring the security of her people, Israel has maintained a firm commitment to democracy. We in the United States are fortunate to have Israel as an unshakeable ally in the Middle East. On this anniversary of independence, we should reflect upon the endurance of that alliance and renew its promises for future generations.

I further recognize the importance of fostering our alliance with mutual cooperation. The second ten-year Memorandum of Understanding between the United States and Israel, which was signed in 2007, has established a fruitful security agreement that has served both of our nations well. A later Memorandum in 2009 further strengthened our joint commitment to counter-terrorism by pledging our mutual assistance to stop the supply of arms to terrorist organizations. It is strategic landmarks like these that help support the lasting bond that we have established with the Israeli state and people.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the 24th Congressional District of Texas, I ask all of my distinguished colleagues to join me in recognizing and celebrating the 64th anniversary of the State of Israel. I am proud of the historic relationship that the United States has with Israel and look forward to the future of our friendship.
